

Never a Dull Moment

Our Family's Foreign Adventures

By Pat Atkinson

A compelling saga of one family's adventures as they see God's faithfulness in times of joy, sorrow, danger and find their lives enriched by friends from different tribes, races and cultures.

Pat has eventually finished the book which family and friends have been waiting for many years and it is now available in the UK!

She hopes that we will enjoy reading it, laugh with them at times and maybe even cry with them. But whatever our response she encourages us to look beyond its pages to our faithful God, to whom they give the praise and glory.

£5.00 per book + post & packaging
